Springfield A. C. 55, Norwich 34.

Springfield, Feb. 9.—The Springfield A. C. defeated the Norwich university here last night in a game full of scrambling from the beginning to the finish. Much fault was found with the referee, which was manifested by the shouting and hissing of the crowd. N. U. complained much of the treatment which they received from the home team. The summary:

Water Warning.

All those using water from the McFarland & Boyce system, who are obliged to keep the water running to prevent it from freezing must be very sparing of it, as so many full streams running at once reduce the pressure and inconvenience some of our customers. A small stream will protect the pipe just as well as a large one and will not interfere with others. Any person not heeding this warning will be shut off upon our gaining knowledge of the fact.

McFarland & Boyce.

As Gerroil Pike, a small Hardwick lad, was playing with a straw cutter one of his mittens became caught in some way. His hand was drawn in and the thumb taken off at the first joint.

The Daylight Store

Your Dressmaker Will Smile

If you ask her to fit over an R. and G. Corset. There is nothing so unsatisfactory to a dressmaker as to try to get a dress to fit over a poor grade of Corset (and there are lots of them sold). R. & G. Corsets have for the past three months been oversold. We have just received all sizes in these Corsets.

R & G. CORSETS.

No. 671 is a White R. & G. Tapering Waist Corset, made like cut, with front and side Supporters. This is a Corset that other makers are trying to copy, and, like all imitations, for better trade are failures. This Corset sells for $1.00.

We are one of the few houses in Vermont that have the Spotless Steam Sponger.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

Our story is short. Cottons and laces cost more. In order to meet last season's quality with prices we are obliged to cut profits. This in the following Underwear will show very plain our design. We must advance prices later.

Night Robes of good muslin, full size and yokes tucked with fine tucks, are now only 50c.

Night Robes with Hamburg and hemstitched tucked yoke, now at 75c. Will be nearer one dollar later.

Corset Covers with hemstitched edged ruffles now for 25c.

Corset Covers with lace trimmings, having armsize trimmed, now at 25c. Worth 35c any day.

Here is a Corset Cover made of fine muslin, having fine plaited Val lace and insertion around yoke and armsize up to best 65c Cover and as good as many at 75c, now at 50c.

HAMBURGS.

These are lots that make underwear, and for that use we secured last Summer a purchase of Embroideries known as jobs or drives, goods that would sell in a regular way for half as much more and several of them at even more than that. At this time we always want some leader, so have cut what should be our profit on these lots and put them in as follows:

Lot No. 1—Hamburgs that sell well over the counter unless in a sale at from 6c to 10c, in this sale now at 5c per yard.

Lot No. 2—Hamburgs that sell in regular way at from 15c to 25c, in a variety of widths, now at 12 1-2c per yard.

These two lots are especially calculated to sell to makers of Muslin Underwear.

At the City Bakery!

On oath and honor we hereby most positively declare that our Double Loaf Malt Bread, made of Pillsbury's flour and by Union bakers, is the best in the State. If you doubt our word try just one loaf and you will be convinced of its superiority to any other. You will notice also that it is white and light and yet firm.

Why is it that Mother's Bread was always good? Because it was made by hand and kneaded, and that is why ours is good. It is properly kneaded. Try one loaf, if no more. All leading grocers and butchers handle it, as follows: Merchant & Fraser, H. J. Smith, Dix & Coleman, Smith & Cummings, Tassie Brothers, John Griffin, J. D. Yandow, Aldrich, Graniteville, and Hopkins, Williamstown. Also leading restaurants and lunch rooms: Spear Brothers, Jack's Lunch Room, Miller's Baltimore Lunch Room and Graniteville Lunch Room.
